Send Documents in Just a Few Clicks

Send one, ten or even thousands of letters directly from your computer in minutes with Neotouch by Neopost. It's easy. Simply use your business or office applications to create your documents like you normally do. Neotouch will process them for you. The Neotouch application gives you the power to print, sort, stuff and post your envelopes and deliver them to the post office - all in the same day.

The Neotouch user-friendly online interface makes it easy and secure for you to send statements, invoices, reminder letters, personalised marketing communications and other important business correspondence.

Neotouch offers powerful reporting and dashboard functions making it easy to effectively manage all your outgoing communications.

A powerful web-based solution handles the preparation and delivery of your business documents in just a few clicks!

Benefits of the Neotouch Solution

Increase Productivity

Leave the mail preparation nightmare behind. It's a hassle to print addresses and find stamps or frank your mail, let alone sorting and stuffing large mail jobs. With Neotouch, mail preparation is done in no time, which allows you to focus on the tasks necessary to grow your business.

Neotouch allows you to save on postage costs by grouping your mail for the same recipient into a single envelope. Plus, turnaround is extremely fast, your documents are printed, inserted and delivered to An Post no later than the next business day.

Flexibility and Personalisation

With Neotouch, you can send a single document or a batch job of thousands. You can also personalise your documents by adding promotional inserts and varying page lengths.

Speed Up Invoicing Time

Do your invoices stack up, waiting to be sent out in a large batch at the end of the month? With Neotouch, you can send invoices as they are created so they reach your customers faster, meaning you'll receive payment sooner.

Mail from Desktop Applications

Mail your documents from your business or office applications using a simple Internet connection. Instead of printing your documents on your office printer, you virtually print it with the Neotouch print driver, which is sent to our state-of-the-art mail preparation facility for mailing.

Ensured Traceability

Each printed document processed by Neotouch is tracked with a unique identifier, which allows for real-time delivery status of each individual piece of mail.

This traceability combined with the undelivered mail function creates a unique report to help clean and manage your data.

A Unique Production Concept

The Neotouch production facility routes documents using a secure and completely automated process. The elimination of manual labour and human error allows for lower costs, guaranteed reliability and decreased delivery time.

Flawless Security

Neotouch and its state-of-the-art production facility provide the highest level of security and service:

- Secure 2 way Data Transmission
- Firewall Protected Network & Server Segregation
- Proven Secure Protocols
- 24/7 surveillance ensures operational continuity
- SSL 256 bit encryption

ISO 9001 and ISO 27001 Certified

The Neotouch production facility has a best in practice Integrated Management System which is audited at least annually and accredited to all the leading security standards for hosting and processing data. These include ISO 9001 Quality Management and ISO 27001 Information Security Management.
